

Oral Report Frame

Write notes about the area you will talk about in your oral report to the class. You could decide who will talk about the classification of the creature, what it looks like, what it eats, its place in the food chain where it lives and interesting facts!

